

Figure 1 consists of three sequential diagrams labeled (a), (b), and (c). Diagram (a) shows a cross-section of the scrotum with two vas deferens being identified and labeled with 'V' and 'D'. Diagram (b) shows one of the identified vas deferens being injected with a blue needle. Diagram (c) shows a small incision being made in the scrotal skin over the vas deferens.

